CASE NO.: 2:17-cv-01059-JAD-VCF

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER GOVERNING THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF
INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS

23 Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c), LR IA 6-2, and LR 7-1, Defendant Eldorado Resorts
24 Corporation (“Eldorado” and/or “Defendant”) and Plaintiff Kenton Kovell (“Plaintiff”), hereby 25 stipulate and agree as follows:

26 Plaintiff is expected to, and has requested confidential, non-public, trade secret, financial,
27 medical and/or proprietary information and documents from Eldorado related to its business
28 operations, including, but not limited to, sales reports, information that may contain customer information, including customer names, addresses, and financial information, medical information and other information that may include disclosure of information related to Eldorado employees, who are not, and are not expected to be, parties to this matter. Eldorado considers this information and these documents to be private and confidential.

Discovery in this case will require the production of documents, inspection of tangible things, the answering of Interrogatories and Requests to Admit, and the taking of oral and/or written depositions, during which the aforementioned proprietary, trade secret, financial, medical, confidential and/or private information and documents of the parties will be exchanged and disclosed. To expedite the flow of discovery, facilitate the prompt resolution of disputes over confidentiality, and to protect adequately material entitled to be kept confidential, the parties agree to limit the disclosure and use of proprietary, confidential, and private information and documents as stipulated, pursuant to this Protective Order on the following terms:

I. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions shall apply to this Protective Order:

- A. “Producing Party” shall mean any person or entity producing documents, information or other materials in the instant matter, including any Party to the instant matter or any third parties.
- B. “Party” shall mean the Plaintiff and Defendant, and any other person that may become a named Party to the instant matter.
- C. “Confidential” information shall be defined as such documents, deposition testimony or other information disclosed during discovery which the Producing Party or another Party reasonably and in good faith contends contains information that should be protected from disclosure pursuant to this Protective Order. Any Party may designate any information or documents as confidential in the reasonable exercise of such Party’s sole discretion; provided, however, by agreeing to this Protective Order, no Party waives the right to challenge any other Party’s designation of any information or document as Confidential.
- D. “Legend” as used herein shall mean a stamp or similar insignia stating confidential.

- 1 E. When reference is made in this Protective Order to any document or Party, the 2 singular shall include the plural, and plural shall include the singular.
3 F. "Attorneys' Eyes Only" shall mean only to be reviewed by counsel of record.

4 II. DESIGNATION OF INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS

- 5 A. When any document or things produced under this Protective Order are designated 6 as Confidential, a Legend shall be affixed to the first page and all pages containing 7 information for which the Producing Party seeks protection. When information
8 produced in answer to an Interrogatory, or response to a Request for Production or 9 Request for Admission is designated as Confidential, the response or answer shall 10 be preceded with the appropriate designation.
11 B. Some documents being produced by both Plaintiff and Defendant may contain 12 social security numbers of Plaintiff and/or Eldorado's employees. Without need of 13 any designation, social security numbers will be deemed to be Confidential. In the 14 event a document is produced without the redaction of a social security number, any 15 Party seeking to use the document will make every effort to redact the social 16 security number before its use in a deposition, court proceeding or court filing.
17 C. The initial failure to designate information or documents as Confidential in 18 accordance with this Protective Order shall not preclude the Producing Party from, 19 at a later date, designating any information or documents as Confidential. The 20 Producing Party may, by written notice to counsel of record for the receiving Party,
21 designate previously produced information or documents as Confidential, which it
22 had inadvertently failed to designate. Upon receipt of such notice, the receiving 23 Party shall promptly mark its copies of the information or documents so designated,
24 and shall thereafter, treat the information and documents as if it had been designated
25 Confidential and shall restrict the disclosure or use of the information or documents
26 in accordance with this Protective Order. If the information or documents have 27 previously been disclosed to non-parties, the Parties shall take reasonable steps to 28 obtain all such previously disclosed information or documents and advise the non-parties to treat the designated materials in a manner that is consistent with this Protective Order and as though the information and documents were originally so designated.

III. LIMITATIONS

- A. This Protective Order shall govern only documents, information and materials generated or produced in response to any method of discovery conducted by any Party to the instant matter, and used in the prosecution and defense of the instant matter.
- B. Persons obtaining access to confidential information under this Protective Order shall use the information only for the preparation of and the trial in the instant matter. Persons shall not use such information for any other purpose, including business, commercial, personal, administrative or judicial proceedings.
- C. Nothing contained in this Protective Order shall require any Party to treat as confidential documents or information lawfully obtained by means other than through discovery in the instant matter and under circumstances that would lead a reasonable person to conclude that the documents or information were not intended to be kept confidential by the recipient; provided, however, that nothing in this Protective Order shall authorize any use of documents or information which is otherwise impermissible.

IV. PERMISSIBLE DISCLOSURES/ACCESS

Except as set forth herein, Confidential information, and any facts or information contained therein or derived therefrom, shall be disclosed only to the Court on the condition that the Court enters an order similar to this Protective Order and/or to: (a) the Parties in the instant matter, including their agents, officers, directors and employees, but only to the extent that such disclosure is necessary for the conduct of litigation in the instant matter; (b) outside counsel for the Parties hereto and their agents, employees, paralegals, or other secretarial and clerical employees or agents; (c) experts, independent contractors, consultants, or advisors who are employed or retained by, or on behalf of, one or more of the Parties to the instant matter or their counsel to assist in

1 preparation of the instant matter for trial; (d) deponents and their counsel who have a need to
2 review this material during the course of, or in connection with, depositions taken in or for the
3 instant matter; (e) stenographic reporters who are involved in depositions, the trial or any hearings
4 or proceedings before the Court in the instant matter; (f) people who have previously received or 5 created the document; and (g) witnesses in the instant matter who need to review this material in 6 connection with their testimony in the instant matter. Confidential information may be disclosed to 7 persons listed in this paragraph only after such person has been shown a copy of this Protective
8 Order and agrees to be bound by the terms of this Protective Order in the form attached hereto as 9 Exhibit A. In the event an authorized person does not execute Exhibit A expressly agreeing to be 10 bound by the Protective Order, the Parties and the Court will nevertheless deem the authorized 11 person to be so bound.

12 V. DECLASSIFICATION

13 Unless and until otherwise ordered by the Court, or otherwise agreed by the Parties, all
14 documents and other discovery materials designated Confidential or Attorneys' Eyes Only shall be 15 treated as such under this Protective Order. In the event that any Party objects to the designation of 16 any document, the objecting Party may seek modification of the designation or the disclosure of 17 the redacted information in accordance with the following procedure:

- 18 A. At any time, the receiving Party of any document or information designated 19 Confidential may notify the Producing Party, in writing, that the receiving Party
20 does not concur in the designation or redaction. The Parties shall attempt to resolve 21 such challenges informally. In the event that such attempts are not successful, the 22 receiving Party may file a motion seeking to remove the designation as 23 Confidential, and the Court shall make an independent determination as to whether 24 or not any given document or information is confidential and/or properly redacted
25 based upon facts then existing, and in so doing, the Court shall not be bound by any 26 Party's designation; provided, however, that such documents or discovery material
27 shall be deemed Confidential unless and until the Court rules otherwise. The Party 28 or entity making the designation must show that there is good cause for the document or information to have such protection.

- B. In the event that any Party files a motion to remove a designation or redaction of information, the document or information shall be submitted to the Court for in camera inspection.

VI. DESIGNATED INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS IN DEPOSITIONS

- A. In the case where Confidential information or documents are used or revealed during a deposition, designation of the transcript or any portion thereof, including the designated documents or other exhibits, as Confidential, may be made by a statement by a Party, counsel or the witness on the record, so that the stenographer transcribing the deposition can affix a Legend to the cover page and all appropriate pages of the transcript and to each copy thereof for dissemination to counsel and in compliance with this order.
- B. A Party or a witness may designate a deposition or trial transcript, or a portion thereof, disclosing, containing or referring to any Confidential information or documents as “confidential” by informing counsel for all other Parties to this matter in writing within thirty (30) days after receipt of the transcript as to the specific pages and lines deemed Confidential, and thereafter such pages and lines shall constitute Confidential information or documents pursuant to this Protective Order. Upon receipt of such notice, any Party in possession of copies of the transcript with the designated pages and lines shall affix the appropriate Legend thereto. During the 30-day interval following receipt of a transcript, the transcript shall be treated as Confidential.

VII. DESIGNATED INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS IN BRIEFS

In the event that any Confidential document or information, or information derived therefrom is included with, or the contents thereof are disclosed in any documents filed with the Clerk of this Court or any other court, including, without limitation, any pleadings, motion papers, briefs or deposition transcripts, such documents shall be filed under seal in an envelope bearing the words: “Confidential pursuant to Protective Order entered by the Court on [date] 2017,” or filed

1 through the Court's ECF system under seal and, subject to the Court's convenience and needs, kept
2 under seal by the Clerk until further order of the Court. The Party who has designated such 3 materials as confidential shall within 10 business days thereafter submit a motion to the Court to 4 sustain the sealed status of such materials, a failure to do so may constitute a waiver of such 5 designated status.

6 VIII. DESIGNATED INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTS IN THE RECORD

7 Confidential information or documents may be offered in evidence at any hearing or the 8 trial in the instant matter, provided that the Parties have met, conferred and agreed in advance of 9 the hearing and/or trial as to how the information or documents will be used, including, by way of 10 example, requesting that the Court designate that portion of the transcript containing the Parties'
11 discussion of the Confidential information or documents as confidential and maintain it under seal, 12 only to be produced to the Parties' at their request. If the Parties cannot agree about how the 13 information or documents will be used during a hearing, before or at the time of the hearing, the 14 Party designating such confidential status may move the Court for an order that the evidence be 15 received in camera or under other conditions to prevent unnecessary disclosure. If such a motion
16 is made regarding evidence to be introduced at the time of trial, then the Party designating such 17 confidential status shall notify opposing counsel and the Court of its intent to make the motion
18 sufficiently in advance of and outside the presence of the jury so that counsel has the opportunity
19 to object to the evidence and/or an opportunity to seek appropriate protection from the Court
20 outside the presence of the jury and before the information or documents are offered into evidence
21 in open court. The Court will then determine whether the proffered evidence should continue to be 22 treated as confidential and, if so, what protection, if any, may be afforded to such information at 23 the hearing.

24 IX. SUBPOENA BY COURT OR OTHER AGENCIES

25 If at any time any document or information protected by this Protective Order is 26 subpoenaed by any court, administrative or legislative body, or is requested by any other person or 27 entity purporting to have authority to require the production of such information, the Party to 28 whom the subpoena or other request is directed shall immediately give written notice thereof to any Party which has designated such information confidential. The Party that received the subpoena shall object to production under Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or any similar rule protecting the production of confidential documents in that proceeding. After receipt of the notice specified under this Paragraph, the designating Party shall be responsible for obtaining any order it believes necessary to prevent disclosure of documents designated, and the Party to whom the referenced subpoena or other request is directed shall produce such document or information only upon an order issued by a judge of a court of competent jurisdiction requiring such production.

X. CLIENT CONSULTATION

Nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent or otherwise restrict counsel from rendering advice to their clients and, in the course thereof, relying generally on examination of stamped confidential information or documents; provided, however, that in rendering such advice and otherwise communicating with such clients, counsel shall not make specific disclosure of any items so designated except pursuant to the procedures in Paragraph IV above.

XI. COPIES OF DESIGNATED INFORMATION

The attorneys of record are responsible for employing reasonable measures, consistent with this Protective Order, to control duplication of, access to, and distribution of copies of confidential information. Parties shall not duplicate confidential information or documents except working copies and for filing in Court under seal. All copies of any confidential information or documents shall be treated as provided in this Protective Order. Any Party making, or causing to be made, copies of any such documents shall make certain that each such copy bears the appropriate Legend pursuant to the requirements of this Protective Order.

XII. NO WAIVER

A. No Confidential information or documents shall lose such status under this Order as the result of the use of such information or documents in any hearing, trial, or other court proceeding in this matter, provided that such use is consistent with the terms of this Protective Order. Counsel to the Parties in the instant matter shall confer at least five (5) days before any such hearing, trial, or other court proceeding in order to work out any objections to the use of any Confidential information or documents in such court proceeding and to make such amendments to this Stipulated Protective Order which the Parties agree are necessary to assure the continued confidentiality of such information.

- B. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all objections as to admissibility in evidence of the discovery material subject to this Protective Order are reserved and are not waived by any terms of this Protective Order. The use of Confidential information and documents as evidence at trial shall be subject to this Protective Order unless otherwise agreed to by the Parties or modified by the Court.
- C. The inadvertent disclosure of Confidential information and documents shall not, under any circumstances, be deemed a waiver, in whole or in part, of any Party's claims of confidentiality.
- D. The inadvertent production of any document or other information during discovery in the instant matter shall be without prejudice to any claim that such material is privileged, prohibited or protected from disclosure as privileged or work product, and no Party shall be held to have waived any rights by reason of such inadvertent production.

XIII. NON-TERMINATION

The termination of proceedings in the instant matter shall not relieve the Parties from the obligation of maintaining the confidentiality of all information and documents produced and designated pursuant to this Protective Order, unless the Parties otherwise agree or the Court orders or permits otherwise. Upon the final disposition of the instant matter, all information and documents, including any summaries or abstracts of materials, however maintained, shall be kept completely confidential. Counsel for either Party may use the Confidential information and documents only for the purpose of defending ethical charges or professional malpractice charges, and may not use Confidential information or documents in any subsequent lawsuit.

XIV. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED MATERIALS

- A. The inadvertent production of information that is subject to a claim of any privilege or other protection as trial-preparation material shall not constitute a waiver of any privilege or protection, provided that – consistent with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5) – the Producing Party notifies the receiving Party in writing of the inadvertent production as soon as practicable following the Producing Party’s discovery of the inadvertent production.
- B. Following the Producing Party’s written notice of the inadvertent production, the receiving Party shall promptly return, destroy, or delete from its databases all copies of the specified information and shall make reasonable efforts to retrieve the information if the receiving Party previously provided the information to third parties.
- C. The receiving Party shall not assert a claim or argument in this or any other court or legal proceeding that the Producing Party’s act of inadvertently producing the information constituted a waiver of the Producing Party’s privilege or other protection over the information.
- D. If there is a disagreement as to whether the specified information is privileged or subject to protection, the receiving Party may present the information under seal to the Court for a determination. Until the Court makes a determination of the privileged or protected status of the information, the receiving Party shall not use in any way (including, but not limited to, using the information in depositions or at trial) nor disclose the information to other Parties.
